Policy

- Benjamins Wear It Again accepts new and nearly new ladies' apparel, accessories, gifts and decorative items for the home by appointment.
- Clothing must be spotless, odorless, wrinkle-free, brought in on hangers.
- Items must be in season and must resemble what is currently offered online and in retail store.
- Not all items are accepted for resale. Items are accepted at our discretion.
- Items are consigned for fall/winter (August – December) and spring/summer (January – June).
- We price the items based on the original suggested retail, condition of the item, our sales experience and our interest in getting you a fair price.
- Reductions will be taken at our discretion.
- It is the consignor's responsibility to call and pick up any "no thank-you's" within one week of drop-off.
- To offset the cost of doing business associated with our technology, an item fee is added at the point of sale. The fee is not reflected in the consignor's 40% split.
- Consignors receive a discount coupon for regular priced merchandise with each drop-off.
- Selling reports and consignor checks are mailed quarterly.
- At the end of each season all items become the property of Benjamins Wear It Again. Following the clearance sale, all unsold items are donated to charity.
- Benjamins Wear It Again is not responsible for the loss of any item due to fire, theft, or damage of any kind.

We thank you for your trust and the opportunity to recycle your valuable wardrobe. For over 30 years, we have provided our consignors and customers with the highest level of professional service.
